The best way to learn Feng Shui is to visit and see how Feng Shui is used in traditional and modern China. In this 14-days you will see the rich agricultural “belly” of China, starting from Shanghai and travel a “loop” through Hongzhou, Suzhou, Huangshan, Nanchang and Xiamen, then back to Shanghai. The mode of travel will include by road, by train and by air.

You will see scenic mountains, sacred temples, quintessential Suzhou gardens, well-preserved ancient houses and villages, also the very special Fujiang earth dwellings (Tulou). During the trip, we are invited to participate in a Daoist festival high up in the Qiyuan Mountain and the Daoist monks from the Wanshouguan Temple in Nanchang have also offered a very special blessing ceremony for us.

This is a unique opportunity for you to experience and to learn from classical China that is fast disappearing. So come and join us, don't miss it!

The cost for the Feng Shui Study Tour, including food (Chinese), accommodation (3 and 4 Stars,twin-share), travel, admissions and course attendance included, course notes, will be Euro 3,140.00. It will cost less if you pay early (Euro 2,890.00 by 01. July 2015) . Please note the cost of travel from your country of origin to China is not included. No prior knowledge of Feng Shui fundamentals is required.

Your place in the group (max. 25 participants) can be secured with the registration and payment of the deposit for the tour, please email or fax the following registration form to Gyda Anders & Howard Choy.
